

GRANDPA'S VACATION.

COPYRIGHT 1907

LENGTH, 690 FEET.

PRICE, $75.00.

Grandpa decides to take a vacation and takes his two grand children along. They go to the country, where they certainly have a good time—that is the boys. They play all kinds of pranks on grandpa, too funny to describe and too numerous to relate.

It is enough to say that when grandpa returns from his vacation he is so bandaged up that you hardly could recognize him.

But the boys had a good time, just the same.

Mr. Jones is a good hearted fellow. When one of his neighbors asks for the loan of the side-board and all the cut glass Mr. Jones lends it to him. Bye and bye all the neighbors ask to borrow something, until at last the house is stripped bare from cellar to roof. Even the baby has been borrowed. When Mrs. Jones comes home and sees the neighbors carrying away her household goods she makes them bring everything back, but oh! how this was done. Now starts a chase after the baby, which is the funniest thing ever seen. At last, the baby is found but poor Mr. Jones gets his.
